Abstract:

[Please write the text of the abstract here. Ensure that it fits within a single A4 page with normal-sized margins (minimum 2 cm). Use Times Roman, Arial, or Calibri font, size 12, with single interline spacing. Incorporate any necessary tables, figures, or pictures, ensuring you have permission to publish them.]

[You can provide a brief overview of the case study, including the patient's clinical presentation, the genetic mutation identified, and the personalized medicine interventions employed. Highlight the successful outcomes and any unique aspects of the case. Feel free to use appropriate tables, figures, or pictures to enhance the presentation.]

[Remember to adhere to the guidelines provided for submission, including submitting the abstract as a .doc or .docx Word document, and including the contact email for correspondence.]

[End the abstract here, making sure it does not exceed a single A4 page.]
