

EUROPEAN LIVER PATIENTS' ASSOCIATION
Global PSC Awareness Day 2021

29th October 2021, 4 AM (CEST)

Location: Streaming on ELPA's Facebook profile

Welcome speech	Mr Marko Korenjak, M.A., M.A., President of the European Liver Patients' Association (ELPA), Belgium Ms Sindee Weinbaum, leader of the ELPA working group on rare liver disease
Epidemiology of PSC and the impact on healthcare services	Dr Palak J.Trivedi, Consultant Hepatologist and Clinician Scientist Birmingham, UK - BASL SIG Chair, Immune-Mediated Liver Disease Chief Investigator, UK-PSC
PSC and Cancer Risk	Prof Dr Annika Bergquist, Senior consultant, adjunct Professor, Karolinska University Hospital, Sweden
Clinical trials in PSC	Dr Udi Zigmond, Center for Autoimmune Liver Diseases, Gastroenterology and Liver Diseases Institute, Tet Aviv Medical Center, Israel
Primary Sclerosing Cholangitis and Inflammatory Bowel Disease. What do we learn from the interactions of these diseases	Dr Joshua Korzenik, Director, Resnek Family Center for PSC Research, Director Brigham and Women's Crohn's and Colitis Center, Brigham and Women's Hospital Harvard Medical School Boston, Massachusetts, USA
New Insights to Pediatric PSC	Dr Eyal Shteyer, Head of Pediatric Hepatology Unit Shaare Zedek Medical Center, Israel
PSC in Australia	Ms Natassia Tan, PhD candidate / Final year gastro advanced trainee Monash University / Alfred Health Melbourne, Victoria, Australia
Closing remarks	Mr Marko Korenjak, M.A., M.A., President of the European Liver Patients' Association (ELPA), Belgium

Partners of the event:

MAGTARMFÖRBUNDET

